XVI NORTH AMERICAN ZARATHUSHTI CONGRESS 2012

The XVI NORTH AMERICAN ZARATHUSHTI CONGRESS 2012 will bring together Zarathushtis of all ages to celebrate our community and explore the theme of the Congress "ZARATHUSHTI EXISTENCE IN THE CONTEMPORARY WORLD".

Evolution depends upon adapting to the environment, and this theme challenges us to examine where we are, and how we need to adapt so that we not only survive but thrive. Speakers include respected scholars and historians, distinguished community members, and people who are making a change in the world.

Topics presented will help us to look at who we are, who we want to be, and what we have to do to get there. Together, we will discuss these issues and their possible solutions. We welcome you to bring your ideas and expect to participate fully.

In addition to our distinguished speakers and panelists listed below, we are pleased to introduce Dr. Trita Parsi, who will be the Keynote Speaker; and Prof. Yuhon Sohrab-Dinshaw Vevaina, who will give the Khorshed Jungalwala Lecture at the XVI NAZC 2012. SUNDANCE FILM FESTIVAL: THE POWER OF INDEPENDENT MEDIA

BY: DEENA GUZDER

As a news producer for the award-winning TV/radio show Democracy Now! in New York City, I deeply appreciate the power of independent media. After all, Democracy Now! is the largest public media collaboration in the United States.

Given Democracy Now!'s commitment to independent media, it's no surprise that we began this year by broadcasting LIVE from the Sundance Film Festival in Park City, Utah (January 19-29, 2012). After all, Sundance is the nation's largest festival for independent cinema. We had the opportunity to feature independent voices from not only the United States but also around the world. One of the people who we interviewed was Robert Redford, the founder of the film festival. Redford is a renowned actor, director and producer of Hollywood film sensations (as my mom would say, he's the heartthrob of his generation!).

DEENA WITH ROBERT REDFORD

However, Redford is more than just a handsome face. He's also a deeply committed social-justice activist who took his phenomenal mainstream commercial success and leveraged it to promote his real passions: environmental justice, Native American rights and independent filmmaking.

During our interview at Sundance, Redford told us, "I wanted to focus on independent films to keep alive the independent spirit through storytelling and movie making. So that's what led to the festival." For more, please visit www.DemocracyNow.org

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN

BY: TANYA BHARDA

On March 1st, 2012, in New York City, five Zoroastrians made a presentation at the United Nations for the Commission on the Status of Women. On behalf of Federation of Zoroastrian Associations of North America (FEZANA), Behram Pastakia, Homi Gandhi, Afreed Mistry, Freyaz Shroff, and Tanya Bharda, presented a workshop on "NGO Learnings: Empowering Rural Women to Overcome Poverty and Hunger". Representatives of many nations, including many Zoroastrians, participated in the workshop.

The goal of FEZANA's presentation was to share the experiences of the World Zoroastrian Organization and Gram Seva Trust in empowerment of women, highlighting the successes achieved during the last two decades. Other non-government organizations (NGOs) represented by people from Nigeria, Sudan, Serbia, and Taiwan acknowledged that they faced similar problems in their own countries. They observed that they could use many aspects of the presentation in their own NGOs.

Q and A session following the presentation reflected on the main ingredient of the success for any NGO--gaining trust of the local community served by the NGO. During this process, the most important thing is never to give up. The goal is to try to make these women understand that the NGO is only there to help them. If the NGO gives up and leaves, then they are just making it harder for the next group to step in. A woman from Nigeria observed that her NGO experienced similar issues. She wanted to collaborate with FEZANA in the future.

Many of these representatives wanted to use the formula of the feed prepared and given to children by Gram Seva Trust for the reduction of malnutrition. The presentation went spectacularly well and in the end many people from all walks of life came up to congratulate the presenters. These women from all over the world had something in common. It was amazing that everyone came together to stand up and take steps to change the status of women.

MAY 5, 2012: ZOROASTRIANS STEPPING FORWARD

"Zoroastrians Stepping Forward" (ZSF), a NextGenNow (NGN) initiative, is an international day of service that will be led by local chapters on May 5th, 2012.

Associations are encouraged to organize a day of fun and host a shoe drive to support local charities. This event will help raise awareness about the importance of shoes in enhancing the physical, mental and emotional lives of disadvantaged individuals. Furthermore, it is an opportunity for the Zoroastrian community to gather to celebrate health and philanthropy.

ZAGNY and IZA would like to kick off this initiative with a shoe drive at our March 31st Function followed by support at both the April and May religious classes. This is a good project for students to work on as part of the "Good Life" program offered by ZAGNY.

Please donate new and gently used shoes to make this initiative a success!

XVI NAZC 2012 ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEEKING FREQUENT FLYER MILES DONORS

Do you ask yourself, how can I help with the Congress in August because I don't have the time with work, home and family? Here is your chance! The XVI NAZC 2012 Organizing Committee is looking for donors to donate airline miles to help facilitate air travel for some of our distinguished guests who are contributing their time and efforts to our community. While millions of us accrue frequent flyer miles through reward programs, the number of people who actually use them is considerably smaller. This program is a wonderful way to donate without having to dip into your savings. For questions or to donate miles, please contact Gev Nentin at nentin@optonline.net
